

Sante

Introduction

We are a family-owned company established in 1992 by Andrzej Kowalski, his brothers Marek and Wojciech and Witold Szpak.

1992 r....

...2007 r.

Introduction

OUR MISSION: provide products that have beneficial effects on health and thus on the well-being of people

OUR AIM:

DELIVER PRODUCTS THAT HAVE POSITIVE EFFECT ON PEOPLE'S HEALTH AND PROMOTE KNOWLEDGE ABOUT HEALTHY LIFESTYLE AND PARTICULARLY ABOUT NUTRITION

Introduction

We develop dynamically:

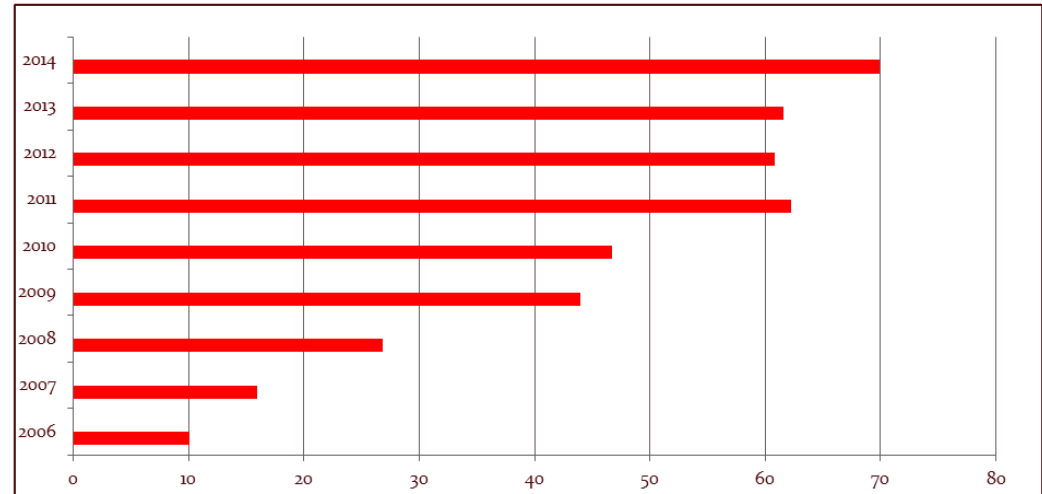

65 000 m² – site area;

898 employees

More than 200 SKUs

Turnover of 70 mln € in 2014:

- ☐ Export – 36 ml €
- ☐ Sante brand – 29,7 ml €

QUALITY

We care about quality

BRC certificate grade A

since 2008

Market appreciates our products

which are awarded by trade and consumers.

Sante – nr 1
na rynku musli w Polsce!

hit handlu

QUALITY

Raw materials only from approved suppliers

Full monitoring and control of production processes

Products are scanned at departure

99% deliveries to be on time

Information on trucks and order collection available on internal portal for KA

rs from date :		2013-09-01	Language/Apply		ENG	Carrier/Przewoźnik
ations/Regdy :			Find / Root		Select a format	Export
of 1			100%
rs from date :										Language/Apply										ENG										Carrier/Przewoźnik
ations/Regdy :				Find / Root		Select a format		Export

SANTE

We are food products distributor & private labels producer for KA and industry

SANTE

Sante exports its products to over 40 countries all over the world.

Our export includes:

- Europe
- North and Central America
- Asia
- Middle East
- Africa

home bargains

Since 2007

Since 2014

SANTE PRODUCTS

GRANOLA

Granola is a blend of crispy wholegrain cereals and a variety of selected fruits, nuts and chocolate.

- available in 4 delicious flavours: fruit, nut, chocolate and pomegranate
- made from natural ingredients
- without preservatives and artificial colourants
- rich in healthy dietary fiber

SANTE PRODUCTS

MUESLI

SANTE Muesli is a blend of wholegrain cereals and dried fruits:

- available in 4 flavours: fruit, tropical, traditional and chocolate
- made from carefully selected natural ingredients
- natural source of vitamins and minerals
- without any preservatives

Musli Lo with is a perfect solution for people who want to stay fit and have a healthy lifestyle.

Available in 3 flavours: fruit, spelt with goji berries, with pomegranate.

SANTE PRODUCTS CRUNCHY

Sante Crunchy is a blend of baked wholegrain cereals, bananas, chocolate with sweet raisins and juicy fruits.

- ideal part of balanced diet for the whole family
- made from wholegrain oats
- rich in dietary fibre
- without preservatives and artificial colourants

SANTE PRODUCTS

CRUNCHY & MUESLI BARS

Crunchy bars comprise healthy alternative to classic sweets thanks to a lower caloric value.

Crunchy bar is a light and nutritious snack made from natural ingredients.

It provides energy, vitamin B and valuable minerals: magnesium, chrome, selenium and zinc.

Chocolate or yoghurt coating included.

With fruits, nuts and almonds in six unique flavorus.

SANTE PRODUCTS

GO ON PROTEIN BARS

GO ON protein bars are created especially for physically active people who want to enjoy longer pleasure that sports give them.

- available in 4 flavours: vanilla, cocoa, hazelnut, cranberry & goji berries
- source of energy from carbohydrates and proteins
- contain high quality whey protein (WPC80), copper and vitamin B12
- source of inulin essential for supporting immune and digestive system

SANTE PRODUCTS

OAT & BARLEY COOKIES

Oat cookies offered in 4 flavours: natural, cocoa, cranberry, coconut with chocolate coating.

- made from wholegrain oats
- rich in dietary fibre
- with no added wheat
- source of beta-glucans, vitamins and minerals

Barley cookies available in 3 flavours: spice flavoured, coconut and coconut with chocolate bottom coating.

SANTE PRODUCTS

CRISPBREAD & RICE CAKES

Crisp – breads are available in four different flavours:
Traditional, wholemeal, with olives and with tomatoes.

Packed in two convenient packs and then in carton
Can be also packed in printed wrap.

Sante rice cakes are available in three flavours:
Natural, Himalaya salt and amaranth.

SANTE PRODUCTS EXTRUDATES

Sante produces extruded pieces in different shapes like discs, balls, twigs and squares which can be used as a component for other products.

Sante is just about to start production of flakes: cornfalkes (traditional), extruded multigrain falkes and puffed rice.

Our advantages:

- ✓ The highest quality of products
- ✓ Permanent drive toward on-going development
- ✓ Increasing experience
- ✓ Competitive price

THANK YOU FOR ATTENTION

Agnieszka Mirowska

Export Manager

amirowska@sante.pl

m. +48 609 740 459

SANTE A. Kowalski Sp. J | ul. Jagiellońska 55A | PL 03-301

Warszawa | VAT no PL 5241006610